This is an authentically exaggerated picture of the Rum runners of Rum Row. Little Alphonso Mouse, who has caused so much trouble at home and had been chased a way becomes a victim of the terrible "Hootch". As a result he has a wild and varied experience.

Everything goes from bad to worse, he is being chased by scores of bloodhounds and returns to the old Farmers place again. The farmer joins in the pursuit. And so our story ends proving that: "No Matter How Hungry A Baby Gets It Never Cries For Its Father"
